Ode to JOY

"For Unto Us A Child Is Born"

Dear friends in Christ,

As we near the end of our Advent journey and prepare to welcome the birth of Our Savior I humbly ask for your continued prayers for my family. Any day now, our family will welcome the birth of our third child and we look forward to his arrival with great anticipation. My five and three year old are especially excited and this Advent and Christmas season has held many precious blessings for us.

My last day in the office will be Wednesday December 17th 2014 and I anticipate being back in the office sometime around the first week of March 2015. If you need any assistance in the meantime please do not hesitate to contact any of the Department of New Evangelization team whose contact information is listed in this newsletter.

May your Christmas be filled with the peace and joy of Christ!

Blessings,

Julianne Stanz

RESOURCE!

"Teach My People to Pray"- Small Faith Sharing Resource

Drawing on Bishop Ricken's pastoral reflection "Teach My People to Pray," Mary Ann Otto, Director of Stewardship and I, completed a small faith sharing resource to accompany Bishop Ricken's pastoral reflection entitled "Teach My People to Pray."
This companion resource is a five session small faith sharing resource focused on prayer and the call to holiness. The hope in creating this companion resource is that participants will encounter and deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ so as to be a witness to others. Imminently practical with questions for discussion, prayers and meditations this study guide is an excellent resource for any small parish group, for couples or families to explore in their homes or for the individual who wants to deepen their prayer life. This would make an excellent small faith sharing resource for your Lenten efforts.
