

RURAL LIFE SCHOLARSHIP

Program: The Rural Life Scholarship is a scholarship worth $500 sponsored by the Rural Life Committee of the Diocese of Green Bay. The purpose of this scholarship is to provide financial aid for an aspiring student going into the agricultural field. To qualify for this scholarship, the applicant must meet the following criteria.

- Pursuing post-secondary education that results in serving the agricultural community in their chosen profession
- Be an Active Member in Their Parish Community
- Exhibit Leadership Qualities
- Receive Recommendation from Pastor, Pastoral Leader, or Religious Education Coordinator

Instructions: Please completely fill out all four parts of the application by providing the information requested. Make sure to answer the questions fully and to the best of your ability. Once you have completed your application, contact your pastor, pastoral leader, or religious education coordinator, and ask them to complete the Pastoral Recommendation Form (separate document). Make sure to be respectful and courteous to whomever you ask so they have enough time to complete the form. Be prepared for the person recommending you to ask you a few questions in order to get to know you better and learn about your future plans that have led you to apply for this scholarship.

To Submit: Upon completion, submit your application and recommendation form in one of the ways listed below. The recommendation form will be accepted as official if attached to the application or sent directly from the recommender with a signature.
