Presenter Biography

Dr. Simone Brosig writes and teaches about living the liturgy. She has a master's in pastoral liturgy and a Ph.D. in Medieval studies, both from the University of Notre Dame. Her dissertation is titled, "In the Secret of the Trinity: The Trinitarian Context of Eucharistic Devotion in the Thirteenth-Century Southern Low Countries," and her background is in Medieval studies, specializing in spirituality, liturgy, musicology, and manuscript studies. She has always been interested in how the rituals and seasons that make up the liturgy of life shape our spiritual journey to God.

Based in Calgary, Canada, Dr. Simone spends her free time hiking in the Rockies and learning languages. She is also the author of the book, "Holy Labours: A Spiritual Calendar of Everyday Work."
