A COUPLE'S GUIDE TO RE-MARRIAGE

A unique seminar class for couples who plan to marry in the Church after an annulment, the death of a spouse, or are currently civilly married and are now seeking the Sacrament of Marriage. This seminar is also open to anyone getting married later in life.

A seminar workshop tailored to the unique issues of couples, such as financial health, finding each other's strengths, raising stepchildren, communication styles, and more. This supplemental seminar can be taken either before the couple is married or shortly after the wedding, and is separate from marriage preparation classes.

All couples are asked to go through marriage preparation to fulfill parish requirements.

Register at marriageinthelord.org.
Cost is $40.

A MARRIAGE IN THE LORD

A MARRIAGE IN THE LORD is a two-part marriage preparation series. These sessions strengthen the practical skills needed for a lifelong, happy, healthy, and holy marriage.

During Part I and Part II, couples will:

- Discuss positive communication skills, finances, families of origin, and ways to protect and empower their marriage.
- Hear stories, presentations, and insights from experienced married couples.
- Have time for private reflection and conversation throughout the day.
- Learn the beauty of living the Catholic vision of marriage as a covenant for responsible parenthood, including a healthy option called Natural Family Planning (NFP).
- Listen to committed Catholic couples (with a background in NFP) share scientific and medical research, personal stories, prayer, and locally available resources.

If you are unable to make any of the scheduled dates or are hearing impaired, please visit our website for alternate options: marriageinthelord.org
