Local Safe Environment Coordinator LoSEC

Pre-requisites

- A. Due to the sensitive nature of the information provided, it is of extreme importance that this person understands that confidentiality and discretion are critical to this position. To insure confidentiality for the person completing an application for service as a volunteer or employee, the following considerations should be paramount in establishing process and procedures:
- the personal integrity of the Local Safe Environment Coordinator (LoSEC) having read, understood, and signed the Local Safe Environment Coordinator Delegation of Responsibility and Confidentiality Statement (1-2)
 - limited access to applications, reports, and documentation, and
 - the security required to protect and restrict access to the information
(i.e., locked file cabinets with limited access; password protected computer workstations)
- B. The LoSEC should possess computer skills including using the internet and ACCESS or EXCEL spreadsheets.
- C. The LoSEC agrees to participate in diocesan sponsored training and guidance in navigating both the eApps (Austin Computing) and VIRTUS websites as well as accessing both the eApps (Austin Computing) and VIRTUS databases.

Responsibilities

1. The LoSEC is responsible for following the requirements for the screening of all applicants for employment or volunteer services.
2. The LoSEC is responsible for tracking participation in VIRTUS programs, i.e., Protecting God’s Children Adult Awareness Sessions and completion of the on-line training bulletins by required employees. (See Policy on Maintaining Safe Environments – Diocesan Policies and Resources)
3. If required, the LoSEC is responsible for submitting any requested reports to the Diocese of Green Bay in accordance with the Bishops’ Charter for the Protection of Protect Children and Young People.

These guidelines are subject to change.

The Bishops’ Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People is regularly reviewed at the Bishops’ national meetings. The national USCCB audit/review process may require that reports and documentation be submitted by local parishes/schools.
