

NEW EVANGELIZATION NEWSLETTER

Lent is just around the corner and preparing others to enter into the spirit of this season means that we often neglect our own Lenten journey.

We rush into Ash Wednesday with some ideas for Lenten resolutions (similar to last year's practices and the ones before that) and find ourselves busier than ever. Easter comes with a flurry of activity, often leaving us feeling more tired than ever. Instead of feeling uplifted and renewed, we feel depleted and weary.

This year unlock the grace of Lent by using these four keys, L-E-N-T:

- Let Go
- Enter In
- Never Give Up
- Time Out

You can read more of my keys to Lent by clicking here

Is your parish thinking about offering Alpha at this time? If so, read how Alpha is changing the lives of parishioners at St. Bernard Parish in Appleton. Maikue provides the following testimonial:

"Alpha was a great opportunity to re-engage in my faith as a Catholic. It allowed me to meet new people, break bread with them & ask questions in a safe environment without judgement. I was born & raised Catholic but didn't know much about my faith aside from what was taught in my faith formation classes & that's just the surface of it all. Alpha was the spark that set my soul on fire to learn more about my own faith & develop a relationship with Jesus as a friend and not just God as an almighty creator. It generated questions which allowed me to go on my own journey of the discovery of my faith & what I found was the beauty of the Eucharist! I have a much more profound understanding of the Eucharist today than I did before & I believe it's because I attended Alpha & the topics shared triggered curiosity in me which lead to the discovery of something so beautiful. I highly encourage everyone to attend even one session - it may light a fire in you that you didn't even know you had."

ALPHA TRAININGS CONTINUE!

ALPHA TRAININGS FOR LEADERS

Alpha small group leaders who have been chosen by the pastoral leadership are welcome to attend any one of the Alpha trainings will continue throughout the year of 2018. See schedule below.

Alpha trainings will instruct parish leaders on how Alpha fits into the discipleship and why it works. With this, participants will be introduced to Alpha principles, session structure, small group dynamics, shared prayer, promotional tips and more.

NEW COMPANION RESOURCE TO THE ALPHA TRAININGS:

Programs, resources and tools used in any of the four steps of the discipleship process are helpful in making disciples; but only to the extent that leaders are disciplined in prayer, God's Word and a daily mindfulness of God's presence. A spiritual foundation for a fruitful roll out of the Alpha courses and the discipleship process is important.

"The LORD was with him, not permitting any word of his to be without effect." (I Samuel

3:19) What was said of Samuel can be said of every parish leader. The following PowerPoint slides are designed for all who aspire to make disciples so that the Lord will not permit any of their words to be without effect: Companion Slides to the Alpha Training

Impact

Bring faith to life. Find life in faith.

A sneak peek at what February Impact Brings: It's Time for Change

Lent is a season in which to repent and change and grow.

Let's be honest. None of us is perfect. We all have areas in our lives that need to change. We may be too focused on ourselves, personal pleasure, or the drive to accumulate material things. We often ignore the needs of the poor, fail to reach out in love and service, or shun those who are different from ourselves. Or, we may simply be so caught up in the daily swirl of activities that we do not take time for God or consider how we might act or grow as a follower of Jesus.

Will your Lenten practice this year lead you to be less distracted, more prayerful, less stressed, and more trusting in God's goodness?

Un poco de lo que incluye Impacto en Febrero: Es Tiempo de Un Cambio

La Cuaresma es un tiempo para arrepentirse, cambiar y crecer.

Seamos honestos. Nadie es perfecto. Todos tenemos áreas en nuestras vidas que necesitan cambiar. Podemos estar demasiado enfocados en nosotros mismos, en el placer personal o el impulso de acumular cosas materiales. A menudo ignoramos las necesidades de los pobres, fallamos en llegar a otros con amor y servicio, o evitamos a aquellos que son diferentes a nosotros. O bien, simplemente podemos estar tan atrapados en el torbellino diario de actividades que no dedicamos tiempo a Dios o reflexionamos cómo podemos actuar o crecer como seguidores de Jesús.

¿Tu práctica cuaresmal este año te llevará a estar menos distraído o distraída, más lleno de oración, menos estresado y más confiado en la bondad de Dios?

What is Impact?

Impact, is a dynamic, monthly resource to form people as disciples and good stewards who share their gifts and faith, making an impact in their lives and the life of the world.

Each month, Impact includes a one-page full color or grayscale PDF resource, which may be used as a bulletin insert, copied and distributed at parish gatherings, and/or used as part of an on-going adult faith formation initiative.

LENT: seeing with new eyes, proclaiming the Gospel in a changing world.

It's that time of year again, the one Catholics both dread and relish: Lent. Lent refers to the pre-Easter period, meant for prayer and penance, and traditionally means that the observer gives something up for 40 days. It is a solemn time meant to prepare the one for the resurrection of Christ at Easter. With Ash Wednesday coming up on Valentine's Day, it may be time for a little soul searching and figure out what we can live without.

In a conversation with UWGB students about Lent here are some of there suggestions around fasting.

1. Headphones: Before the invention of these beautiful, little plastic earbuds, we never would have been able to experience the bliss of listening to hardcore gangster rap in the middle of a quiet lecture hall, or effortlessly tuning out awful roommates during their "me time." But how often do we use those headphones to shut out the world? Try walking to class or doing homework - without any music.

2. Caffeine: Contrary to popular belief, this isn't an essential part of life. Plenty of people go their whole lives without even a single cup of coffee in the morning, and they are pleasant enough. According to healthyliving.com, after abandoning caffeine, many people report feeling less irritable and a lot calmer.

3. Facebook: Most of us spend way too much time on social media when we could be actually spending time with friends in real life. Being on the Internet can be a gilded cage - everyone feels so connected, but at the same time, spending five hours holed up in your room scrolling through Facebook can feel extremely disconnecting. Try putting Facebook on pause for a little while and see how many great opportunities open up. You may just never want to reactivate it.

4. Swearing: This seems pretty tame, but walking on campus it seems for some college students, having a dirty mouth is almost a requirement. After a while, curse words can begin to replace terms we would otherwise use that make us actually sound intelligent and it is hard to recultivate that vocabulary. Try giving up this vulgar vocab and see how much easier it is to converse with your parents and grandparents.

5. Sleeping in: Hitting the snooze button is a college kid's favorite pastime, but in those five or 10 minutes we waste kind-of-sleeping, we could be doing so much more - meditating, getting our clothes ready for work or even spending a few extra minutes in the shower may just be the thing that boosts your mood.

6. Eating on campus: Who has time to make their food at home? According to Forbes.com, the same people who save on average $9,600 during their college career. While $10 here or there for Subway, Papa John's or Panda Express doesn't seem like much, it adds up every week. Taking an extra five minutes and making a sandwich in the morning not only saves money in the long run, but also helps to avoid that Freshman 15.

7. Netflix: For many college students, this is the hardest. Binge-watching obscure English dramas and Family Guy during downtime is a treasure, but when you really think about it, procrastinating on the important paper due in a week for just one more hour of entertainment ends up in unneeded stress and aggravation down the road. Giving it up for 40 days may be a huge challenge, but your grades will thank you for it.

These are just suggestions. Maybe your take on Lent is not to give up something but to change a pattern in our life or to add a service component to your weekly schedule. Whatever, it is a time for us to see with new eyes, to proclaim the Gospel in a changing world. Blessings on these 40 days!

The Importance of Ash Wednesday at UW-Oshkosh

Dear friends,

Next week brings the beginning of Lent with Ash Wednesday. This is the biggest day of the year for the Newman Center. Over the last three Ash Wednesdays, we have average 315 people coming to Masses. This number is mostly students, but also includes faculty and staff. A majority do not go to Sunday Mass on a regularly basis. In order to accommodate the people we celebrate Mass four times: 7:00 am, 12:05 pm, 5:00 pm and 7:00 pm.

Because Ash Wednesday is so big, it is the most important space for evangelization at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh. This year, our focus is to get as many Catholics as possible to get back to regularly attending Sunday Mass, either at the Newman Center or a parish. Rather than talking about what we will fast from, which is a very good practice, I will be preaching about getting to Sunday Mass, forming that as a habit. If we believe that the Mass is the source and summit of the Christian life, and it is, many young adults are truly missing out. I have learned over the years that there is a certain way to approach this (also on other days such as Christmas, Palm Sunday and Easter). We cannot be condemnatory. That doesn't work. But, we cannot pretend that missing Sunday Mass is not important. Conversion is important. Please pray that we will find the right balance. Thank you.

Sometimes for fear of alienating people, we don't say the things that need to be said. The goal of the Newman Center is that someday every soul, every student, faculty and staff member connected to UW-Oshkosh will fall deeply in love with Jesus in His Church. That is our mission, nothing more and nothing less.

Sincerely though Jesus,

Father Jason Blahnik

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

Young Adult News

With Lent fast approaching it has made me think back to one Lent I remember as an elementary student. I must have just had the light bulb go on in my head about what the season was all about. I was so interested in the idea of praying, fasting and giving alms - I made a calendar up for myself to plan my 6 weeks. I remember giving up two of my most favorite things - red vines and picking on my sister Lora. I thought that the red vines would be the most difficult, but it turns out that was easy. I forgot about them, but Lora was around all the time and I couldn't forget her. Being close in age we fought a lot, but also had a lot of fun. I tried really hard to be patient and recall my visits to confession included more conversation about her than anything.

Our pastor was so wise - he reminded me that I was to be part of the change and transformation that Lent offers - it doesn't just appear when you checked off things on the list. I was a bit disheartened - I would actually have to make an effort to be kind - not just refrain from antagonizing. I decided to go for it. I looked for all the ways my sister was interesting, fun, good, kind and helpful. The more I thought on those things - the less I felt like being a thorn in her side. I know at the end of Lent - we had done more things together, played without crazy arguments and actually grew closer. It was a revelation to me at Easter when I realized I really had changed and in doing so, helped my relationship with Lora grow and probably gave my mom reason to celebrate!

My hope for you this Lent is that you are open to the transformation God wants for us - not just a list of things you want to improve on. God may see things a little differently - and have something incredible in store for you. Jump in with both feet - take a few risks and pray for a heart that is wide open to be made ready for the joy of Easter.

We have some great events coming your way through our regional young adult ministry and want you to know you are invited and welcome to bring your friends along!

Please check out the Facebook pages for weekly events, but these two things you want to plan for a bit ahead.

1. April 30 - Millennial Church Conference - this is open to millennials and all those who live work and serve alongside them. It will be a day of learning, community building, fabulous food and hospitality. Set aside the date and look for registration information soon. If you are interested in helping with the conference, contact Jane Angha at 920-272-8304 or email jangha@gbdioc.org.
2. August 2 - 10th Annual Spirituality and Sushi - for sushi lovers and haters. There is something amazing for everyone! Look for details on that later. Just set the date aside!

YA Ministry Basics

1. Pray for YA ministry in your parish before it happens; pray for young adults in your community, pray for wisdom, passion and enthusiasm!
2. Gather people interested in starting YA ministry no matter what their age - but make sure the voice of YA is loud and clear. Meet, plan, pray and offer events!
3. Make a list of all the parish and community do right now that YA could engage in.
4. Make a list of what is missing, what they are interested in, what they need the church to be for them. (This could be a little survey sent out too)
5. Take a leap of faith and offer a fun social event to start with - low key, fun, good food, opportunity for getting to know each other,non-threatening and simple. (Meet up at a bar and grill - offer to buy the apps. Plan an outing to a local event - buy coffee after. Offer a board game night with drinks and snacks. Invite a fun speaker in and have a fab social after with good food, music and door prizes.
6. Gather contact info at every gathering and begin to communicate.
7. Create social media platform for connecting. Give someone this awesome responsibility.
8. Invite feedback.
9. Invite new ideas and affirm them!
10. Put on some of those new ideas and encourage leaders to come forward.

There are four areas to concentrate on with Young Adults:

1. Social - building community and relationships.
2. Spirituality - grow faith, deepen spirituality, invite to worship, bible study. sacraments...
3. Service -do something for others - together. It gives purpose and meaning to life!
4. Leadership - let young adults lead, offer training, resources and support.

You can do this! If you need ideas, support or help, just contact a regional coordinator near you or call Jane at 920-272-8304
