

NEW EVANGELIZATION NEWSLETTER

Dear Friends in Christ,

There is so much good news bearing fruit all around the Diocese of Green Bay as we continually grow as disciples of Jesus Christ and his body, the Catholic Church and help to make disciples of others.

There are many excellent resources to move your parish and school from a maintenance culture to a missionary discipleship culture. This work as you know, is difficult because it is so highly relational but it is the one that will bear the most fruit in the long run. Discipleship is a way of life and while programs can be a springboard to grow in faith, they can never replace the process of discipleship.

I want to share with you an e-book that is a very accessible and engaging read to help with this paradigm shift. Entitled "A Missionary Key: How to change the culture of your parish" by the L'Alto Catholic Institute whose aim is to help parishes to foster a culture of missionary discipleship.

Here is an excerpt:

"For years, many of our parishes have been characterized by an institutional model that made sense when the surrounding culture was almost entirely Christian. However, as we advance further into an increasingly secular, post-modern culture, our Catholic communities have been called to take up the same missionary attitude that marked the early church who once evangelized the pagan Roman Empire. Seminal works like Evangelii Gaudium, Forming Intentional Disciples, and Divine Renovation have pointed to the necessary movement that needs to take place in parish communities from a maintenance-based, institutional mode to a foundationally missional "setting", but for many of us who do ministry in parishes, the difficult question remains: how?"

This book is available for you as a free download by clicking on this link. You can share this e-book with others, since the author has given his permission for the publication to be widely shared.

Lastly, with this being the month of all things Irish and St. Patrick, I could not help but share with you one of my favorite prayers attributed to St. Patrick:

"I arise today
Through God's strength to pilot me;
God's might to uphold me,
God's wisdom to guide me,

God's eye to look before me,
God's ear to hear me,
God's word to speak for me,
God's hand to guard me,
God's way to lie before me,
God's shield to protect me,
God's hosts to save me
From snares of the devil,
From temptations of vices,
From every one who desires me ill,
Afar and anear,
Alone or in a multitude"

PRAYING FOR ADULT CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES

Will you join the Diocesan Adult Confirmation Instructors in prayer? In the remaining weeks before the 2018 Adult Confirmation Program begins, we are praying that the Holy Spirit stir the hearts of all Catholic adults (who have not been Confirmed) to attend one our eight Adult Confirmation classes being offered throughout the Diocese of Green Bay.

It is our hope that by attending our Adult Confirmation classes, candidates will be accompanied into an enduring relationship with Jesus Christ and a fuller communion with the Church.

Heavenly Father, may the 2018 Adult Confirmation program begin with your inspiration, continue with your help, and produce the fruit of discipleship under your guidance. And may every Adult Confirmation candidate be accompanied into an enduring relationship with Jesus Christ and a fuller communion with the Church. We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen!

ALPHA TRAININGS CONTINUE!

TWO NEW RESOURCES

Two new resources have been developed for the parish leaders of the Diocese of Green Bay! The first resource recaps what has been presented in the Alpha training regarding the eleventh session of the Alpha Course, "What about the Church?" The second resource address frequently asked questions regarding the Catholicity of Alpha.

1. Session 11: What about the Church? During the Alpha trainings for parish leaders, a few options were given to substitute Alpha video #15 for the eleventh session entitled, "What about the Church?" The substitution Alpha video #15 with a Catholic video or presentation is a key piece of Alpha in a Catholic Context. To read more about what these recommendations are for session 11 (Alpha video #15), click here.
2. The Catholicity of Alpha: This article addresses frequently asked questions about the Catholicity of the Alpha course. Among these, some have asked, "Why is the Diocese of Green Bay using the Alpha course when Alpha did not originate in the Catholic Church?" In this document are four questions and answers to be aware of on how the Alpha course can support our discipleship efforts in the Catholic Church. To read more, click here.

ALPHA TRAININGS FOR LEADERS

Alpha small group leaders who have been chosen by the pastoral leadership are welcome to attend any one of the Alpha trainings will continue throughout the year of 2018. See schedule below.

Alpha trainings will instruct parish leaders on how Alpha fits into the discipleship and why it works. With this, participants will be introduced to Alpha principles, session structure, small group dynamics, shared prayer, promotional tips and more.

NEW COMPANION RESOURCE TO THE ALPHA TRAININGS:

Programs, resources and tools used in any of the four steps of the discipleship process are helpful in making disciples; but only to the extent that leaders are discipled in prayer, God's Word and a daily mindfulness of God's presence. A spiritual foundation for a fruitful roll out of the Alpha courses and the discipleship process is important.

"The LORD was with him, not permitting any word of his to be without effect." (I Samuel 3:19) What was said of Samuel can be said of every parish leader. The following PowerPoint slides are designed for all who aspire to make disciples so that the Lord will not permit any of their words to be without effect: Companion Slides to the Alpha Training

Impact

Bring faith to life. Find life in faith.

A sneak peek at what March Impact Brings:

Come into the light

Darkness May be Thrust Upon Us

Have you ever been stuck in the dark? In the dark, it is hard to see, perception is changed, we don't know where to turn and search for even a glimmer of light. At times, darkness is thrust upon us: we grieve when people we love die or are struck with life-threatening illness; we ourselves may face physical, emotional, or spiritual darkness; life at home or work may be tense and stressful; the world is filled with turmoil.

Lent is about making an intentional decision to follow Jesus more closely, turning away from the darkness that is of our own making, and trusting in God's eternal light when life is difficult and uncertain.

Un poco de lo que incluye Impacto en Marzo:

Vengan a la luz

La Oscuridad Puede Ser Impuesta en Nosotros

¿Alguna vez has estado atrapado en la oscuridad? En la oscuridad, es difícil ver, la percepción cambia, no sabemos a dónde ir y buscamos incluso un rayo de luz. A veces, somos arrojados a la oscuridad: sufrimos cuando las personas que amamos mueren o son golpeadas por una enfermedad que amenaza la vida; nosotros mismos podemos enfrentar la oscuridad física, emocional o espiritual; la vida en el hogar o el trabajo puede ser tensa y estresante; el mundo está lleno de confusión.

La Cuaresma se trata de tomar una decisión intencional para seguir a Jesús más de cerca, alejándonos de la oscuridad creada por nosotros, y confiando en la luz eterna de Dios cuando la vida es difícil e incierta.

What is Impact?

Impact, is a dynamic, monthly resource to form people as disciples and good stewards who share their gifts and faith, making an impact in their lives and the life of the world.

Share the Journey

Every year, hundreds of college students choose service to others as a way to spend their spring breaks. Deciding to take an alternative spring break trip and volunteer is a no-brainer! Just imagine spending your spring break contributing to a meaningful project, meeting people from across the globe and exploring new country! This year UWGB Phoenix Catholic students will be traveling to Albuquerque, New Mexico and will be experiencing life in the high desert. Working with Fr. Graham Golden, O. Praem. the week will take a critical look at the diversity of experiences of "place" for people of diverse walks of life; understanding the relationship of "place" in light of economic and social stability, community identity, hope and despair, and history and future. Each day will begin with prayer and end with theological reflection.

A time for students to step outside their comfort zone

One of the best aspects of ASB is that it challenges students to be comfortable with the uncomfortable. As students prepare to graduate school and enter the working world, an ASB trip is a great opportunity to test what their transition is going to be like. They're not going to know everyone on the trip and they'll be volunteering in underserved communities, which might be jarring or uncomfortable at times. Yet, through experiencing this, they'll learn to be a more adaptable and introspective person, which will be useful when living and working in a community.

I have seen students change throughout the duration of the trip as well as beyond it.

During the trip, I often see students excited by the new situations and experiences or I see students challenged by unfamiliar surroundings and situations struggle to make sense of what they are experiencing. Many students fall somewhere between the two. There is a lot to learn. A lot to take in during that week, which is why oftentimes it isn't until a few weeks after arriving back on campus that I hear from students about their growth.

The experience helps students reevaluate their lives and sometimes choose entirely different career paths after their time on a service trip. The experience of ASB is in some ways unique to the focus of a particular trip, but the overall impact of the experience is opening eyes, hearts and minds.

Follow along from March 9 to 16 as the students document their experiences on Facebook as they partner with the Norbertine Community of Albuquerque and impact lives.

As Individuals and as Ministries We must strive for Excellence

Dear friends,

Jesus wants us to strive for excellence. Excellence is not perfection. To quote the words of Sarah Swafford, "Striving. Not perfect. Because perfect is impossible."

We are to strive for excellence in our personal lives. For those that are married, strive for excellence in your married life. For those who are working, strive for excellence in your work. For those of us who follow Jesus Christ, strive for excellence in faith.

Considering this imperative, I have been striving for excellence in my ministry to young adults at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh. My world view is different than that of those I minister to. I have been doing additional reading to overcome they own bias.

I am reading Preaching to a Postmodern World: A Guide to Reaching Twenty-First Century Listeners by Graham Johnston. As of the writing of the book, Johnston was the senior pastor of Subiaco Church of Christ in Western Australia.

Through prayer and reflection, I saw that every homily must be transformative. I cannot have a throw away homily. This is especially true for the Sunday homily. The way I would preach to myself is different than what most young adults need. Johnston provides four rules for engagement in our postmodern climate. One of the rules is rick involvement. He quotes Ralph and Gregg Lewis in Inductive Preaching: "Any hope for involvement must start with the attitude of the preacher. He or she has to want involvement. But that desire must grow directly out of care felt for the people. No one cares how much we know until he knows how much we care." There are many other ideas that have begun to affect my preaching.

Sincerely though Jesus,

Father Jason Blahnik

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

Young Adult News

Lent is well underway - I have really loved being on social media during this time when so many are fasting from it. I have particularly loved posts that sympathize with people who haven't quite done Lent perfectly. I never seem to do that no matter how much I want to. I have been known to bite into a grilled burger on a Friday - or forget to read my daily reading until 11:59 pm. I know, it isn't that awful - it is a journey comprised of all the little things. Even so, I find comfort in my fellow pilgrims who struggle too and are brave enough to tell the world on social media. It's comforting.

One thing I have managed to keep up with are heartwarming stories of people doing awesome things. I am reminded of just how beautiful people are when I watch "Returning the Favor" with Mike Rowe. Haven't seen it? Get a box of tissues and binge.

With the world sometimes spinning out of control around us - it's good to get grounded and remember that God knows. Knows our worries, fears, hopes and dreams. We just have to be ready to jump in and make things happen as faithful people. That might just be the beauty of Lent. It refines us - makes us ready for the mission and for all God is calling us to do and to be. I wish you a wonderful rest of this beautiful season and may you find passion, purpose and mission!

We have some great events coming your way through our regional young adult ministry and want you to know you are invited and welcome to bring your friends along!

YA Ministry Basics- Something to Share with Ministry Leaders in the parish

1. Pray for YA ministry in your parish before it happens; pray for young adults in your community, pray for wisdom, passion and enthusiasm!

2. Gather people interested in starting YA ministry no matter what their age - but make sure the voice of YA is loud and clear. Meet, plan, pray and offer events!

3. Make a list of all the parish and community do right now that YA could engage in.

4. Make a list of what is missing, what they are interested in, what they need the church to be for them. (This could be a little survey sent out too)

5. Take a leap of faith and offer a fun social event to start with - low key, fun, good food, opportunity for getting to know each other, non-threatening and simple. (Meet up at a bar and grill - offer to buy the apps. Plan an outing to a local event - buy coffee after. Offer a board game night with drinks and snacks. Invite a fun speaker in and have a fab social after with good food, music and door prizes.

6. Gather contact info at every gathering and begin to communicate.
7. Create social media platform for connecting. Give someone this awesome responsibility.
8. Invite feedback.
9. Invite new ideas and affirm them!
10. Put on some of those new ideas and encourage leaders to come forward.

There are four areas to concentrate on with Young Adults:

1. Social - building community and relationships.
2. Spirituality - grow faith, deepen spirituality, invite to worship, bible study. sacraments...
3. Service -do something for others - together. It gives purpose and meaning to life!
4. Leadership - let young adults lead, offer training, resources and support.

You can do this! If you need ideas, support or help, just contact a regional coordinator near you or call Jane at 920-272-8304

Blessings,
