“For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, saying, ‘This man began to build, and was not able to finish.’” - LUKE 14:28-30

As you consider the information presented, you have heard new ideas, new thoughts and a new paradigm for ministry within the Church. With this in mind, as you consider your growth in your faith and your parish, school and ministry, reflect upon the following questions:

How would you describe the spiritual climate of your parish, school or particular ministry?

How would others describe the spiritual climate of your parish, school or particular ministry?

As I consider my own specific ministry, what can I do to make the mission of our parish in making disciples more explicit?

Who are the most readily available, on fire and enthusiastic disciples that could help to move other "Disciples on the Way"?

What existing initiatives or ministries are most important to growing our discipleship efforts?

Which ministries need to be relooked at from the perspective of discipleship?

What do we need to STOP doing to grow disciples?

What do we need to KEEP doing (but perhaps improve) to grow disciples?

What do we need to START doing to grow disciples?

How will we know if we are successful in making disciples?
