

Department of Education:
RELIGIOUS EDUCATION & YOUTH MINISTRY

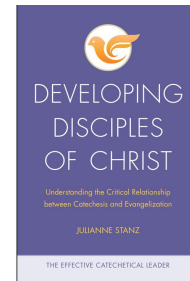

We are missionary disciples striving to lead all people to the Kingdom of God.

Pilot Parishes: Religious Education Initiative

Applications available; due February 10

As a progression of our great book study discussions around Developing Disciples of Christ, we welcome any parishes who would like to renew, rejuvenate, or reinvent part or all of their religious education and youth ministry to do so via this application!

We want to equip, accompany and resource you and your parishes as best as we are able. If you are looking to try something new but do not want to be considered as a pilot parish, please still complete this application as we would like to be in touch with you and keep Bishop Ricken up to date as to the changes in your parish!

Hebrews 10:25 Professional Development Event

February 1, 2018

At this installment of Hebrews 10:25, we'll hear several parish success stories:

- Marcos Cisneros & Callie Kowalski from St. Bernard Parish, Green Bay about their teen leadership teams in the parish.
- Dcn. Lincoln Wood & Maria Scherer from St. Mary/St. Rose, Clintonville/Bear Creek about their HS faith formation program which is broken up into two groups -- Seekers and Disciples. BTW, their program is free of charge to their students!
- Shannon Ausloos & Kristin Bird from Most Blessed Sacrament in Oshkosh about their revamp of religious education using Alpha as a way to engage parents.

Plus round table topics after lunch (included in registration). Don't forget . . . Brew time (social) starts at 9am; Introductions, Prayer, Praise at 9:30; followed by speakers; Lunch at Noon; Round tables after lunch.

Register Now Until January 24th!

Registration fee ($17) transferable, but not refundable.

March is ACRE Month

The NCEA IFG: ACRE edition is based on the Catholic Church's expectations for an organic, systematic, and comprehensive education in Christian discipleship.

Currently, it is the only tool that provides national scores for comparison and processes for tracking religious education
