Benzinger has free downloads of simple prayer services (one/two sheet in color) on their website using some of the new texts of the Mass. They are also available on Sister Sandra DiMasi's site at <https://public.me.com/liturgywkids>. Click on the link and open “public folders” and then on each of the pdf's. The first one does not open, but it is repeated.

Other websites that have downloads of things for students:

Fort Wayne, South Bend. <http://www.diocesefwsb.org/diocesan-offices/catechesis-office/new-english-translation-of-the-mass>. (more of a curriculum than specific lesson plans)

Australia has some simple explanations with questions and suggested activities. <http://www.togetheratonealtar.catholic.edu.au/index.cfm>. Click on the various color designs

Lansing: www.diocesoflansing.org/worship Then click on Resources on the Translation. These are pdfs you can print: “Who's Who”, “vocabulary,” titles of things in the Missal, and bulletin inserts that work for teaching handouts.
